Time is money! This is a great opportunity to see how/why things are done and discuss efficiency on the job site. You and your clients are invited to participate in an open panel discussion with key individuals who are and have been involved in various aspects of the kitchen and bath remodeling industry. This is your opportunity to ask questions from designers, contractors and even past clients who have lived through a remodel! Bring all your questions!

Please see the attached registration form for more information and registration details. Also, please note our new registration procedure.

Please contact Jeanine Anderson with any registration questions.
Please contact Shad Johnsen, CKD with any questions regarding this meeting.
